Websites / Travel blogs	Remarks
www.lovetooffthemap.blogspot.com	Not decided yet on ferry from Baku, Azerbaijan (Ginsaps can't include the ferry but that is the idea) or via Iran due to CdP hassle for Iran. Or possibly Armenia, Georgia, Russia and then back into the Stans. Pamir highway for sure!
	prefer travel faster trough Europe (highway) to limit time off. Like to include Ir an - Like experiencing beauty of "naked" landscapes - Relaxing near camp fires with cold beer and stories from fellow travelers
www.franqlais-riders.com	nothings et in stone yet as visas are priority. If we can get a double entry visa for Kazakh we will probably get into Russia, the Kazh then some of the southern stans and back to Kazakh into Mongolia.

www.sampsonsouthbound.blogspot.com	I am a US citizen. I cannot get into or out of Iran. I plan to take the Ferry from Azerbaijan to Turkmenistan. I plan to take a southern route through west Euope to avoid cold spring weather.
http://chasingdreams2014.blogspot.co.uk/p/route-planning.html	Plan is to do full RTW. Initial route is Germany, Austria, Italy, Greece, turkey, Georgia, Russia, Kazakhstan.
	* - On asphalt av. 600 km/day, on unpaved road av. 200 km/day (BAM, Road of Bones, OSR - Old Summer Road ) due to circumstances I can only commit max 3 months in advance. Might break the trip for about 10days in Turkey to keep my girl happy as she won't be coming for the whole trip.
N/A	Very flexible just looking for an adventure. I am either happy to tag along or make it up as I go if solo. I Have to get back to work in Australia very early August so I'll just get as far as I get and head home, Irkutsk, UB, Vladivostok...wherever. Just need a rough idea for visas. Can't wait!!
	We want to go trough Belarus on our way east. Then Russia all the way to Ulan-ude.
None	Four guys making the journey-all bought NX650s for spares simplicity. We aim to get to Tynda and then make a decision on the rest of the journey - either continue East on the BAM or head SE to either Vladivostok(most probable) or some other city on the TSR for the return journey. I did The Stans and Pamir hwy in 2008 so may be able to help with information on it.
	Generally easy going and flexible. As on travels, things have a habit of changing. So I tend to take things as they come.
	Done Nordcapp, Sahara and Odessa plus all of Europe. The Missus and I now go RTW with shipping in mind from Vlad to the US of A. Then we pick up the bike and the trip from there.
